

OPERATION TRANSLATION

Zo Bawi lived in a village in the hills of the country of Myanmar. He and his younger brother are the youngest of 10 children—nine boys and one girl. Their father was addicted to alcohol. The children felt shame when their father drank too much and then disturbed others in their village. Because of their father, the family had a bad reputation.

One day a man named Rev. Thawng Za Mung went to Zo Bawi's village to take the gospel to the people. Rev. Mung loves God. He cares about the people of Myanmar and works at Tender Love Orphanage and Child Care to help children. When he was at Zo Bawi's village, he told the people: "The Bible teaches we are all sinners. We all do things that are wrong. But God loves us and sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a cross to take the punishment for the wrong things we do. If you will trust Jesus as Savior, God will forgive your sin. He will make you part of His family, and someday you will live in Heaven with God forever."

Rev. Mung saw the sad condition of Zo Bawi's family. He offered to take Zo Bawi and his younger brother to Tender Love Orphanage and Child Care Center to care for and educate them. Rev. Mung and his family prayed often for Zo Bawi's parents. As they kept praying, Zo Bawi's father believed in Jesus and was saved. He stopped drinking and committed his life to follow Jesus. Zo Bawi also accepted Jesus and was baptized by Rev. Mung.

Zo Bawi is 14 and is going into ninth grade. God has given him special ability in music. Each Sunday he plays the `r for Sunday School classes and church. He is learning God's Word and enjoys living under God's care and direction.

Many more children in Myanmar need to learn about Jesus. Most are from Buddhist families. Your generous gift to Operation Translation: Help Me Learn about God in My Own Language will help translators in Myanmar translate Sunday School and VBS materials into their language so more children and families can learn about Jesus.